Y Clubs Will Elect State Officer Slate -

Torrance and North High students in Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y Clubs, that somewhat vocal segment of the populace left out of the recent ballot casting, will have their chance Saturday, Nov. 22 at Whittier College when they gather to elect a lieutenant governor and some other state officers.

A delegation of 10 local boys and girls will attend the first training session for the YMCA's 11th annual statewide Model Legislature to be held in Sacramento next February.

Besides holding elections for officers allotted to the Southland, the students will get help from adult experts on how to select a subject for the legislative bills they must submit at the citizenship training event.

They'll also hear a "keynote speech" from Ivan Hinderaker, UCLA professor of political science and former member of the Minnesota Legislature.

Besides lieutenant governor, officers to be elected are secretary of state, assembly speaker pro-tem, assembly clerk, assembly chaplain and senate sergeant-at-arms. Judi LeClaire from North High is running for Chief Clerk of the Assembly having been Reading Clerk of the Senate last year.

A similar meeting is scheduled for Northern California YMCA's at College of the Pacific. The Youth Governor and other officers will be elected there.

Torrance YMCA Executive Secretary said the training session marks the beginning of a lot of hard work for the student. "From now on they'll be working on bills, talking to experts who can help them, studying parliamentary procedure and, in general, learning how our State government functions."

Ticket Rush for Hawaiian Meal

With the heaviest rush for reservations in Torrance Chamber of Commerce history, the success of the "Hawaiian Holiday" Breakfast Meeting of November 25 at the Polynesian Restaurant is assured, according to co-chairmen O. R. Trueblood and Dick Herbert.

The affair will feature a native Hawaiian "hula" dancer, a Polynesian combo, ham and eggs "Hawaiian" and colored films of the island paradise. J. H. Paget, chairman of the Chamber's Hawaiian Tour, scheduled for April 3-11, 1959.
